Infrastructure

Here you will be

Pasching 5min to the Plus City with complete infrastructure, Upper Austria, Austria
Linz, the capital of Upper Austria, is a city that harmoniously combines tradition and modernity. With a rich industrial history and a contemporary cultural flair, Linz is an up-and-coming metropolis.

Old town and culture:

The historic city centre impresses with its charming alleyways, picturesque squares and the impressive Linz Cathedral. Cultural highlights such as the Lentos Art Museum and the Ars Electronica Centre reflect the city's artistic diversity.

Bank of the Danube:

A pleasant promenade stretches along the banks of the Danube, perfect for walks and cycle tours. The Danube Park offers relaxation and a marvellous view of the river landscape.

Economy and innovation:

Linz is an important business centre, particularly in the fields of technology and industry. The city has developed into a centre for innovation and research, which is underlined by facilities such as the Tech Center Linz.

Culinary delights:

Linz's cuisine spoils you with regional specialities. Traditional inns and modern restaurants offer a variety of culinary experiences.

Events:

Linz is home to the annual Pflasterspektakel, an international street art festival, and many other cultural events that fill the city with energy and joie de vivre.

Linz is a city of contrasts that impresses visitors with its diversity, cultural richness and open atmosphere.

Travelling around the accommodation

Travelling around the accommodation

There are various ways to get around Linz, depending on your preferences and needs:

1. Public transport:

- Linz has a well-developed public transport network, including trams and buses. The network is efficient and connects the city's neighbourhoods. Buying daily or weekly tickets can be inexpensive.

2 Bicycle:

- Linz is a bicycle-friendly city with well-developed cycle paths. Bike hire stations offer the opportunity to explore the city on two wheels. The flat terrain makes cycling particularly pleasant.

3 Car:

- Driving in Linz is another option, especially if you want to explore the surrounding regions. However, be aware of the traffic conditions and parking options in the city.

4 Pedestrian:

- The historic centre of Linz is easy to explore on foot. Many of the main sights, shopping streets and restaurants are within walking distance of each other.

5 Taxi and transport services:

- Taxis are available in Linz and offer a convenient way to get around the city. There are also various transport services that can be booked via app.

6th Danube boat trip:

- With the Danube flowing through Linz, boat trips offer a scenic and relaxing way to explore the city.
